Dear Murray,

We had a grand time at lunch. I was as fascinated as everyone else listening to George Bush talk about China, but I suppose Mitch was right in pulling us back to the main subject.

Here's the things on the Sam Adams matter I said I would send you. It looks like a lot of reading but please do take the time to skim through it. I think you will be illuminated.

Let me take the occasion of this letter to invite your attention once again to the fact that insofar as our analysts are available, we are glad to have them sit down on a background basis with your various people. Your Washington bureau people and Jerry Schecter are aware of this situation and take advantage of it, but don't hesitate to have folks from other publications and from the foreign bureaus get in touch with us here at Langley to see if there is something we can do for them.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

/s/ Angus MacLean Thuermer
